Content

Instructor assignment

Hour 1

Resident rights, dignity, privacy, choice, councils, family engagement, and complaint pathways.

[PENDING CONFIRMATION]

Hour 2

Abuse-prevention controls, staff training scenarios, documentation, escalation, and corrective action.

[PENDING CONFIRMATION]

Teaching Methods

Live lecture with visual slides and participant-facing handouts.

Case scenarios and guided discussion using RCFE operations examples.

Polls, chat prompts, verbal check-ins, and knowledge checks during the live-stream.

Post-test administered through the LMS or controlled form after attendance is verified.

Participant Evaluation Method

Participants complete a course and instructor evaluation covering objective clarity, relevance to RCFE administrator duties, instructor effectiveness, materials, technology, timing, and suggested improvements. Evaluation records are retained with the course file.

Participant Assessment and Post-Test Method

Participants must attend the full approved duration, complete the active participation checks, and pass the post-test with a minimum score of 80 percent. Remediation may be provided once; the certificate is withheld until attendance, participation, and assessment requirements are satisfied.

Post-Test Questions and Answer Key

No.

Question

Answer key

1

What is a core operational purpose of resident rights training?

To ensure staff decisions preserve dignity, choice, privacy, and safety.

2

What should occur when a resident-rights complaint is received?

Document, escalate, investigate, and respond according to approved policy.

3

Why are resident and family councils relevant?

They support resident voice, issue identification, communication, and quality improvement.

4

What documentation style is most appropriate for rights concerns?

Objective facts, actions taken, notifications, and follow-up.

5

Which Core category applies?

Residents' Rights.

Active Participation Verification Method

Live-stream attendance is verified through platform log-in records, attendance check at opening and closing, periodic polls or chat/verbal responses at least every 20 to 30 minutes, facilitator monitoring, and post-test completion. A participant who is absent, inactive, or disconnected for a material portion of the approved hours is not issued completion credit until the deficiency is resolved under an approved make-up approach.
