* = This program is new and has not yet started. Therefore, the number of students who graduate, the number of students who are placed, or the starting salary you can earn after finishing the educational program are unknown at this time. Information regarding general salary and placement statistics may be available from government sources or from the institution, but is not equivalent to actual performance data. The program has not yet started, no data is available for the required two calendar years. Once the program begins, data will be reported based on the number of students who started or graduated from the program, starting from the date of approval. The School Performance Fact Sheet will be updated annually and posted on the institution's website in accordance with the requirements.

Definitions

- "Number of Students Who Began the Program" means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- "Students Available for Graduation" is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- "Number of On-time Graduates" is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- "On-time Completion Rate" is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- "150% Graduates" is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).
- "150% Completion Rate" is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- "Graduates Available for Employment" means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- "Graduates Unavailable for Employment" means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- "Graduates Employed in the Field" means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- "Placement Rate Employed in the Field" is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- "Number of Graduates Taking Exam" is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.

CI INSTITUTE OF NURSING
CERTIFIED NURSE ASSISTANT TRAINING PROGRAM
STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

You have the right to cancel the enrollment agreement you sign for a course of instruction, including any equipment, materials, and supplies, or any other goods and services included in the agreement, if applicable, and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

Cancellation of this agreement can occur up to: _____
(Enter date of first-class or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later)

Cancellation Process:

Cancellation can be initiated by providing a written notice at the following address:

CI Institute of Nursing, 419 E. Hamilton Ave., Campbell, CA 95008.

A signed cancellation/withdrawal form should be submitted by mail/email/hand-delivered/in person to the Registrar or HR Manager in order to be effective. We will not accept unsigned correspondence in any form. The written notice of cancellation, if sent by mail, is effective when deposited in the mail properly addressed with postage prepaid. The written notice of cancellation need not take any particular form, and, however expressed, it is effective if it shows that you no longer wish to be bound by your enrollment agreement. You will be given notice of cancellation form with this enrollment agreement and on the first day of class, but if you choose to cancel, you can use any written notice that you wish. If the school has given you any equipment or other materials, you shall return it to the school prior to the first date of instruction, if applicable. Once you pay for the equipment, it is yours to keep without further obligation. If you cancel the agreement, the school will refund any money that you paid, less any deduction for equipment not timely returned in good condition, within 45 days after your notice of cancellation is received, if applicable.

Withdrawal from the Program:

A withdrawal may occur after the cancellation period, entitling the student to a pro-rata refund if 60% or less of the scheduled days in the current payment period have been completed. The refund, processed within 45 days of withdrawal, will be less a registration or administration fee, not to exceed $250.00, and any deduction for equipment not returned in good condition, if applicable. If the student has completed more than 60% of the scheduled attendance period, no refund will be provided as the tuition is considered earned.

Conditions for Withdrawal:

A student is considered to have withdrawn if:

- The student notifies the institution of withdrawal or as of the date of withdrawal, whichever is later.
- The institution terminates the student's enrollment for various reasons, including failure to maintain satisfactory progress, non-compliance with rules, excessive absences, or failure to meet financial obligations.
- The student fails to attend class for two consecutive days.

Refund Calculation:

The date of withdrawal is deemed the last recorded date of attendance. The refund amount is determined by multiplying the daily charges for the program (total institutional charge minus nonrefundable fees, divided by the number of days in the program) by the number of days scheduled to attend before withdrawal. No refund is provided if the student has completed more than 60% of the scheduled attendance period.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

Loan or Third-Party Payments:

If any portion of the tuition was paid through a loan or third party, the refund will be sent to the lender, third party, or the relevant state or federal agency. Any excess amount will be used to repay student financial aid programs, with the remaining balance returned to the student. If federal student financial aid funds were received, the student is entitled to a refund of monies not paid from these funds.
