Key Terms

Term	Definition
Informed consent	Voluntary agreement to care after disclosure of risks, benefits, alternatives.
Refusal	A competent patient's right to decline recommended care.
Advocacy	Acting to protect and promote the patient's rights, interests, and values.
Autonomy	The patient's right to self-determination.
Conflict of interest	A competing interest that could compromise patient-centered judgment.

Fictional / De-identified Case Scenario

All clinical content is fictional and de-identified. No PHI. A fictional, decisionally-capable client declines a recommended home service that the family strongly wants the client to accept.

Learner Activities

- Read Sections 5.1-5.4.
- Participate in the ethics poll (Choice).
- Apply a named ethical framework to the scenario.
- Write the ethics reflection and complete Knowledge Check 5.

Documentation / Decision-Making Exercise

Write a 250-350 word ethics reflection applying a named decision framework, and document the consent/refusal conversation in note form (fictional, de-identified).

Knowledge Check Blueprint

8 items + 1 ethics scenario item, unlimited attempts, immediate feedback, no full key, $\geq 80\%$ to complete.

Assessment Items (Learner-Facing Stems)

KC5-Q1 (MCQ). A capable client refuses a service the family wants. The RN's role is to:

- Override the client
- Support informed autonomy and document the refusal
- Withdraw all care

Prefer entirely to the family

KC5-Q2 (True/False). Confidentiality may be limited by minimum-necessary sharing for legitimate coordination.

True

False

KC5-Q3 (MCQ). Accepting a personal gift that could influence service decisions is an example of:

A) Good rapport

B) A conflict of interest

C) Advocacy

D) Informed consent

Internal Answer Key Appendix (ADMIN / FACULTY ONLY - DO NOT SHOW LEARNERS)

Item ID	Type	Correct answer	Rationale	Remediation
KC5-Q1	MCQ	B	The RN advocates for informed autonomy and documents the refusal.	Review Reading 5.2/5.3.
KC5-Q2	True/False	True	Coordination may require limited, minimum-necessary disclosure.	Review Reading 5.1.
KC5-Q3	MCQ	B	Such gifts create a conflict of interest that can compromise judgment.	Review Reading 5.4.

Debrief / Remediation Guidance

Reinforce that advocacy means supporting the informed, capable patient's choice even against family pressure, with careful documentation. Failed attempts route to Reading 5.2-5.4.

Application-Packet Defensibility Notes

Patient advocacy and consent are direct nursing duties, squarely within BRN patient-care relevance.

Scope-change flag: The master packet currently documents a 4-contact-hour representative course. This module is part of a new 30-contact-hour design that is Draft / Needs SME approval and is not yet reflected in the official BRN contact-hour map or transfer worksheet. [[SME REVIEW REQUIRED BEFORE SUBMISSION]]

Do not advertise, issue certificates, or represent this course as BRN-approved until the official BRN CEP approval and provider number are issued.
