

Describe the procedures for weighing and measuring height of the patient/resident

- A. Measure height and weight on admission and as ordered
- B. Patient/resident wears gown or pajamas
- C. Should urinate before being weighed
- D. Do routine weights at the same time each day if physician ordered
- E. Most accurate weights completed during early morning care